

Housing Information

Living in another country requires flexibility and an open mind to adapt to different ways of thinking and life styles. The type of lodging the students selects for his/her Florentine stay is therefore very important. The Institute suggests different possibilities; valid for all accommodation that it is at the students' disposition from 1 day before the beginning of the course until 1 day after the end of the course.

ISTITUTO EUROPEO does not own any apartments or housing facilities, but acts purely as an intermediary between the apartment owners and the students. Students are not required to use the Institute's housing assistance in order to participate in the Academic programs. Students may also contact one of the several housing agencies in Florence for assistance.

In an individual apartment: For those who desire complete independence or those who want to come to Florence with family or friends.

In a student apartment: For those who want to share their experience with other students in furnished and well equipped apartments.

Home-stay: For those who want to learn about Italian life style first-hand using the language and adapting to another way of thinking and living.

Other possibilities: Furthermore, it is possible to make reservation for pensions, hotels, residence or religious pensions.
