

Writing Workshop Course Content

This workshop encourage writers or writers-to-be to develop their potential and range. Participants go through various exercises, readings, critiques, and discussion. The program aims to heighten the capacities of observation and personal interpretation, challenging the writer to more purely express ideas. Creative writing, non-fiction, and the art of being published are addressed.